

CORNELL FAMILY GENEALOGY

OVERVIEW OF THE RECORDS

- Repository: Crandall Public Library.
Center for Folklife, History, and Cultural Programs,
Glens Falls, NY.
- Creator: Arthur Francis Searing Peck.
- Title: Cornell Family Genealogy.
- Dates compiled: Unknown.
- Abstract: The Cornell Family Genealogy begins with Thomas Cornell of Essex, England, who came with his family to Massachusetts about 1638. The Cornell family described in this volume lived mainly in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and New York (especially on Long Island). Many Cornells were Quakers. Family information is provided to the late 19th century, but the bulk is before 1800.
- Quantity: Photocopy of typescript, ca. 200 p.
- Identification Number: Archives & Manuscripts: Genealogy

SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE RECORDS

The Cornell Family Genealogy begins with Thomas Cornell (ca. 1595- ca. 1655) of Essex, England, who came with his family to Massachusetts about 1638. Members of the Cornell family described in this volume lived mainly in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and New York (especially on Long Island). Many Cornells were Quakers. Family information is provided to the late 19th century, but the bulk is before 1800.

INDEX TERMS

- Topics: Quakers—Genealogy.
- Places: Massachusetts—Genealogy.
New York (State)—Genealogy.
Rhode Island—Genealogy.
- Important People: Cornell family.
Peck, Arthur Francis Searing.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

- Preferred Citation: Cornell Family Genealogy,
Center for Folklife, History, and Cultural Programs,
Crandall Public Library, Glens Falls, NY.
- Accession Information: Gift of Hazel Searing May, n.d.
- Processing Information: Arranged and described by Albert W. Fowler.