

NANCY FLOYD'S HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK COLLECTION

OVERVIEW OF THE RECORDS

- Repository: Crandall Public Library
Center for Folklife, History, and Cultural Programs,
Glens Falls, NY.
- Creator: Nancy Floyd
- Title: Nancy Floyd's High School Yearbook Collection
- Dates: 1949, 1950.
- Abstract: Nancy Louise Floyd was a member of the Class of 1950 of Glens Falls High School. This collection is Nancy's annotated copies of Red and Black, yearbook of Glens Falls High School for 1949 and 1950. Most of the annotations are brief notes written by other members of the class to Nancy.
- Quantity: 2 volumes
- Identification Number: Archives & Manuscripts: Schools

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Nancy Louise Floyd was a member of the Class of 1950 of Glens Falls High School. Nancy and her sister Barbara Ann (also Class of 1950) were the daughters of Clifford C. and Florence A. Floyd. Clifford worked for the Glens Falls Indemnity Co. The family lived at 17 Jefferson Street in Glens Falls.

SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE RECORDS

These are Nancy Floyd's annotated copies of Red and Black, yearbook of Glens Falls High School for 1949 and 1950. Most of the annotations are brief notes written by other members of the class to Nancy.

INDEX TERMS

- Places: Glens Falls (N.Y.)—Schools.
- Important People: Floyd, Nancy Louise.
- Organizations: Glens Falls High School (Glens Falls, N.Y.)

Subjects: High school seniors—New York (State)—Glens Falls.
High school juniors—New York(Stae)---Glens Falls.

Form/Genre: School yearbooks.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Preferred Citation: Nancy Floyd's High School Yearbook Collection
The Folklife Center at Crandall Public Library
Glens Falls, NY 12801

Accession Information: Donated by Friends of the Library, 2014

Processing Information: Described by Erica Wolfe Burke 2014

4/2010