BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dan Busha, a professional chef, has been folding origami for many years. After discovering the art of Japanese paper folding at the request of his godson, Nicholas, Dan has turned his fascination with this unique art form into a creative business. In addition to providing decorations for weddings and birthday parties, Mr. Busha also teaches origami classes several times a year. Through his workshops, Dan gives children the opportunity to discover the world of origami and all its beauty for themselves.
