DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE OBJECT

This colorful textile piece measures 17 inches high by 19.5 inches wide. The scene depicts the Nativity, with the holy family, Kings mounted on camels? Llamas?, and shepherds bringing their gifts. The scene is set in a busy mountain village, full of people and animals: cows, goats, sheep, donkeys, ducks, a goose. There are villagers also bringing gifts. An angel watches over the tent-like "stable" where the child lays, and in the starry sky there is one huge shooting star.

The piece uses a large array of fabrics, and various techniques including applique, trapunto, and embroidery.

The back of the piece is a natural colored coarse woven cotton. There is a label which says "Made in Peru/100% cotton." There is also a small pouch containing a note:

"Lima – Peru

Grupo Imagenes de mi pueblo

Este cuadro representa aun nacimiento donde vemos al pesebre y a los 3 reyes magos llevando sus regalos y los pastores llevando sus ofrendas,

Lima – Peru."

The gallery from which this piece was purchased had a considerable selection of similar items, including depictions of Noah's Ark, of village activities, and of villagers engaged in x-rated pursuits.
