

HERSTEL COLVIN SCRAPBOOK

OVERVIEW OF THE RECORDS

- Repository: Crandall Public Library.
Center for Folklife, History, and Cultural Programs,
Glens Falls, NY.
- Creator: Herstel Colvin, d. 1901.
- Title: Herstel Colvin Scrapbook.
- Dates: 1881-1886 and undated.
- Abstract: Herstel Colvin (d. 1901) compiled this scrapbook of newspaper clippings, 1881-1886 and undated, pertaining mainly to Glens Falls and Warren County, and including an article on the Harris family. Also included are letters published in the Times from a traveler to Mexico, in January 1885. Addison Beecher Colvin was Herstel Colvin's nephew.
- Quantity: 1 volume.
- Identification Number: Archives & Manuscripts: Scrapbooks

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Herstel Colvin was born in the Town Kingsbury and moved to Glens Falls in 1860, where he conducted a furniture and undertaking business for many years. Addison Beecher Colvin was Herstel Colvin's nephew.

SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE RECORDS

Herstel Colvin compiled this scrapbook of newspaper clippings, 1881-1886 and undated, pertaining mainly to Glens Falls and Warren County, and including an article on the Harris family. Also included are letters published in the Times from a traveler to Mexico, in January 1885. These clippings were pasted over a ledger, kept during the 1870's, for an unidentified store or business.

INDEX TERMS

Places: Glens Falls (N.Y.)—History—Sources.
Warren County (N.Y.)—History—Sources.
Mexico—History—1867-1910.

Important People: Colvin, Herstel.
Harris family.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Preferred Citation: Herstel Colvin Scrapbook,
Center for Folklife, History, and Cultural Programs,
Crandall Public Library, Glens Falls, NY.

Accession Information: Gift of Harriette C. Bell, 1950.

Processing Information: Described by Albert W. Fowler.

4/2010