SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE RECORDS

Album of colored advertising and trade cards, ca. 1890, mostly showing girls, flowers and sentimental scenes. Many of the cards contain advertisements for commercial products, especially ones used by women. Among the products mentioned are baking powder, coffee, corsets, musical instruments, perfume, shoes, soap, starch, thread, vinegar and yeast. Cards prepared by several Glens Falls businesses are included. Some greeting cards and Christmas cards are also present. The album was evidently compiled by members of the Dubee family of Glens Falls, possibly including Louise Dubee.

Cards in the album for Glens Falls businesses include the following: Boston Bankrupt Shoe Co., 74 Glen Street; G. W. Conkey, Photographer; Hartman and Everest, Fine Shoes; New York and Oriental Tea Co, No. 3 Warren Street; and Mrs. Chas. Thomas, Hair Store, Glens Falls. South Glens Falls businesses include P. W. Tearse & Son, Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Collars, Whips, &c. There are also advertisements for businesses in Albany, Buffalo, and Troy.
